HARTLEY GORENSTEIN is a renowned producer whose films have achieved both critical and popular success. His credits include the acclaimed feature Room, starring Brie Larson, Jacob Tremblay, Sean Bridgers, Joan Allen and William H. Macy. Nominated for four Academy Awards including Best Picture, the film garnered an Oscar, a Golden Globe, and a BAFTA Award for lead actress Brie Larson.

More recently, Hartley produced the highly anticipated film Polar, directed by legendary music video director Jonas Åkerlund whose music videos for such artists as Beyoncé, Madonna, U2, Lady Gaga, Metallica, Coldplay, Rolling Stones, Brittany Spears, Smashing Pumpkins have won him numerous Grammy and MTV Music Video Awards.

Other recent producing credits include The Grizzlies, by first-time director Miranda de Pencier (who recently produced an adaptation of Chekhov's The Seagull starring Elizabeth Moss and Saoirse Ronan). Shot entirely on location in the Arctic, the film is about a small Arctic town struggling with the highest suicide rate in North America, where a group of Inuit students' lives are transformed when they are introduced to the sport of lacrosse.

Additionally, Hartley produced Goon: Last of the Enforcers, starring Seann William Scott, Jay Baruchel and Liev Schreiber. Directed by Jay Baruchel, the feature is a continuation of the popular hockey comedy Goon, which Hartley also produced.

Hartley served as executive producer on The F Word and the Copperheart Film, Wolves, and was involved in producing the new finale of Sony's Flatliners starring Ellen Page, Diego Luna, James Norton, Nina Dobrev and Kiersey Clemons. Included among his more recent credits as line producer are the Sony Screen Gems films Silent Hill: Revelation 3D, Resident Evil: Retribution, The Mortal Instruments: City of Bones and All Saints Day, and Warner Bros. Orphan, which received a Teen Choice Award nomination. Other credits include The Lazarus Project for Sony Pictures, as well as Canadian director Clement Virgo's critically acclaimed Poor Boy's Game which garnered three Genie nominations and Lie With Me, which was nominated for two Genies.

For television, Hartley produced three seasons of the popular series "Man Seeking Woman" for FX, as well as the pilot for the breakout hit series "The Bold Type." Immediately following Polar, he went on to produce "The Boys" for Amazon Studios and Sony Pictures Television. Based on the series of dark and violent graphic novels that ran for 72 issues from 2008-2012, "The Boys" is executive produced by Evan Goldberg, Neal H. Moritz and Seth Rogan. He will next produce "What We Do in the Shadows," a half-hour comedy series for FX based on Jemaine Clement and Taika Waititi's popular mockumentary horror film. Set in New York City, the "What We Do in the Shadows" follows three vampires who have been roommates for hundreds and hundreds of years. The series will be executive produced by Clement and Waititi, along with Scott Rudin, Paul Simms, Garret Basch and Eli Bush.

A native of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Hartley graduated from the University of Winnipeg with a B.A. He studied law at the University of Sheffield, England, graduating with Honors, and went on to receive a Masters degree in Biotechnical Law & Ethics, graduating with Merit.
